

Have fun & take part in the day-to-day work
of your community farm.
Lend a hand at Lexington Community Farm!

Volunteer Opportunities at LexFarm include:

- field work, including harvest & garlic planting
- farm property projects, like painting & building repair
- farm-based education program development
- researching grants or joining our fundraising team
- maintain our website or work with us to design a new one

Visit the Volunteer page of LexFarm.org to learn more and to sign up for a volunteer session. Follow the links and sign up for a project that interests you.

Who We Are and What We Do: Lexington Community Farm is a non-profit working farm connecting the community to locally grown food and sustainable farming practices while preserving historic farmland. We operate a small farm, growing vegetables for a CSA, a farmstand, and hunger relief programs. We run educational programs, hold community events and offer volunteer opportunities. We are located at 52 Lowell Street in Lexington.